Abstract

The purpose of this study was to analyze the intrinsic and extrinsic elements in the novel. By doing this, I will find out how Sir Arthur Conan Dolye describes the theme, character, characterization, plot, setting, not social and see in a novel called the adventure of sherlock holmes. In this study, the author use descriptive methodology and descriptive analysis where the authors assess the data held by the methods and research questions based on relevant theories.

In conclusion, the author approve the relationship between intrinsic and extrinsic uns in the novel. However, neither intrinsic nor extrinsic can separate one another because the plot, theme, character and characterization, point of view and setting are the combination that builds a novel from within. Sir Arthur Conan Dolye through his novel The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes is read and read by a detective named Sherloks Holmes. resolve client cases. This proved to be a compilation of Holmes's 12 client cases in 12 episodes contained in the novel The Adventures of Sherlocs Holmes. The 12 episodes are titled: Scandal in Bohemia, Case of Identity, Adventure of the Red League, Mystery of Boscombe Villey, Five Pips of Orange, Men with Twisted Lips, Adventure of Blue Carbuncle, Adventure of The Speckled Band, Adventure of The Engine's Thum, The Noble Bachelor, The Bachelor Barley Coronet and The Coperbeechees Adventure
